

Bingham High School Color Guard Contract

Dear Team Member and Parents,

Welcome to Bingham High's Colorguard for the 2007-08 season! We're excited that you have chosen to join us this year, and hope the best for you in the following seasons.

What is required of you as a team member:

Each member of this team is expected to attend all practices in proper dance attire -black t-shirt (no print preferred) and black full length or Capri length dance pants as well as appropriate footwear. All members must show up to practice on time, preferably in the mindset ready to practice. Positive attitudes are a must. If conflict arises, please make arrangements with team members and inform your instructors well in advance of practices missed. In case of emergency, use the contact information below.

Game Nights/Performances:

All team members are required to attend all game as a members of the marching band. Game nights during the marching band season are performance nights, attendance is mandatory.

What you will get in return:

A chance to grow and progress, a positive life experience, good times and great memories.

Other things you need to know:

In addition to fees required for marching band, other fees may apply during the season. The amount is currently unknown, but you, as parents and team members, will be informed far in advance of when need will apply. Fundraisers will be possible for any team member that is in need of assistance. Team members may also seek sponsorships if they desire.

Any questions?

If you have any questions, you may contact Brittany Edwards (cell: 801-859-3448) or the Bingham High School Music Department (Contact information can be found at www.binghambands.org).

I, as the team member, and as parent of signed team member, understand and agree to all rules and conditions of joining the Bingham High School Color for the 2007-08 year.
